Old Business: No unfinished business.

New Business:

A new revenue source to support the RSC operations fund, along with the support from TJ's Nightlife, will begin this month. Thanks to Ray Hall for his ideas and working hard for our shag club. We will start having a "second social" at TJ's on the 4th Thursday of each month (May & June). In conjunction with this social we will schedule a reverse raffle with tickets available for purchase by anyone at the event for $5.00/each. Our 1st Reverse Raffle drawing will be held June 26th, the final appearance of Sea Cruz @ TJ's, so let's come out and show our support for their music and home of the RSC as well.

Thanks to the volunteers that have assisted in selling raffle tickets at several of the past Thursday evenings. Anyone wishing to help sell tickets may contact Clark. Rumor has it that he can always find a comfortable chair for a willing volunteer. If it is not to your liking.....take his!

Multiple thanks to the volunteers that assisted in the initial set up and evening ending clean up with smiles and greetings to our members. The menu of "pot luck" foods was a success. The membership brought some delicious items.

Let's not forget those who helped on the membership table. It was great to see Debra Fearing joining us during her recovery from recent surgery.

As usual, Ronnie and Jimmy got us started and kept us moving with good music and encouragement to keep the dance floor rockin'.

Deborah Gonzales gave a presentation on the Cabin Fever 2015 project. You can follow on Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/2015CabinFever>. The RSC needs volunteers and sub-chairs to help. If you can help, please contact Deborah at cabinfever2015@gmail.com. Thanks to all who have volunteered thus far.

The updated/new By-laws were presented. Proposed changes were highlighted with remarks from Clark. The floor was open to motions to discuss or present specific motions. There were none. The proposed By-laws were passed with 100% support in favor with no votes to oppose. Thanks goes out to Patti Battle, Debra Fearing and Bill Mears for their hard work and an outstanding updated document.

A special thank you to Don Bunn for allowing the Raleigh Shag Club to make a presentation to students in his shag classes. On Monday, the floor at TJ's was filled with enthusiastic dancer sin the beginner and intermediate level. Several students expressed interest and the information brochures were snapped up. There will be another presentation on Tuesday.

The Business Meeting was adjourned @ 6:35 pm.
