Hospice planning will start after the PIPF event. Warren asked for everyone to volunteer in some capacity for the events. Stacy reiterated excitement for the remainder of the year's events.

Lee Smith reported 288 members and asked for non-members to join. Debra Baker reported on DWTS, saying only two tables were left to purchase. She asked for additional help still needed, particularly working the door.

Jackie Inscore covered details of the PIPF event on Oct. 16. He asked each member to buy a raffle ticket and also if every member sold just one ticket, then all tickets would be sold. There will be a planning meeting on Aug. 17 at 7:00 at TJ's Night Life and anyone who is interested in working the event should attend. Also, Jackie mentioned the "Hike for Hope" on Sept. 18 at Bond Park, which will be a big fundraiser sponsored by PIPF; he asked for anyone to come out to support the event. Also the Shooter Party will be Sept 19, 5:30-7:30 at the Tiki Bar, with Jimmy Pearce providing the music. He mentioned possibly taking a bus trip in November to another shag club party, asking for feedback on those who might be interested.

Tommy Smith said that reverse raffle tickets are now available for the PIPF event, with the grand prize of a beach music cruise for two. Stacy Marshall has Fun Monday tickets available for those wanting to purchase any and you don't have to be present to win.

Stacy thanked those that prepared the meal for tonight and also others that brought sides. He thanks Marilyn Collins for coordinating the set up/clean up in Pettis Montague's absence. Stacy said that the new e-mail system was now being used; it's Constant Contact and we are paying $153.00 yearly for this service. He asked anyone who is not receiving the e-mails to let him or any board member know, as well as anyone not receiving the phone tree messages.

Liz Ross read a note from Debra Fearing, giving thanks to everyone and updating on her medical/health status/recovery.

Stacy reported that he takes the leftover food from our monthly meetings/events to A Healing Place, which is a drug/alcohol recovery program. He announced that Hospice of Harnett County has an event this Saturday night at the Dunn Shrine Building and he had flyers for those interested in attending. Stacy announced August birthdays.
