

RALEIGH SHAG CLUB MEETING

Sunday February 13, 2011

The monthly meeting of the RSC was held February 13, 2011, at 6:30 p.m. at TJ's Night Life.

Present: Stacy Marshall, President
Margaret Griffin, Vice-President
Ann Bartholomew, Secretary
Patti Battle, Treasurer
Bill Mears, Sgt. At Arms
Barbara Fields, Membership Chair
Tommy Smith, Ways & Means Chair
Debbie Brooks, Webmaster
Terry Mears, Meal Coordinator

Bill Mears called the meeting to order at 6:40 p.m. Stacy Marshall welcomed everyone and said there was a lot to cover as the new board had been working hard making plans for the very exciting, upcoming year. Margaret Griffin said that a survey would be sent out to the members to find out what everyone would like to see happening in the upcoming year. She stressed the need for a Social Chair and volunteers to help out during the year with all events. It was announced that two door prizes would be drawn tonight. One would be for a ticket to the Hospice event and one a Valentine prize. Stacy then asked if there were any changes or additions to the minutes. Margaret Griffin moved that they be accepted as posted on website. There was a second and they were approved. Stacy also thanked the owners of TJ's for allowing the Raleigh Shag Club to meet there. Stacy also recognized Bill Mears, Ronn Knott and Debbie Brooks for their work on the club newsletter which was posted on our website.

Treasurer's Report: Patti Battle gave the treasurer's report, a copy of which is attached hereto. This report, along with bills/receipts will be filed for the year end audit.

Meal Coordinator: Terry Mears expressed the need for members to volunteer to cook meals at the meeting. Food needs to be prepared for 150 – 200 people with reimbursements. She said a sign-up sheet would be available during the evening. The March meeting will be the annual Chili Cook-Off with judges.

Membership: Barbara Fields announced that this would be the last day for a discount to re-up. After March 1, 2011, members who had not renewed would be dropped from the phone tree and membership list. She announced that we had 169 members and recognized two new members, Jimmy Osborne and Teresa Daniels.

Ways & Means: Tom Smith thanked Karen Brown for working the 50/50 at tonight's meeting. He thanked all those who had volunteered to work the 50/50 raffle at Cabin Fever Throwdown. (which has always been very successful). He said he appreciated everyone's help and was looking forward to CBT 2011.

Webmaster: Debbie said she had added beach music shows to the website. She also thanked Ronn and Bill for their work on the club newsletter.

Phone Tree: Don Bunn was welcomed back from knee surgery and said the phone tree and shag lessons would continue for the year.

Old & New Business: The Cabin Fever Throwdown

Earl Fowler, chairman for the event, recognized committee members Jim Adcox, Tom Smith, Margaret Griffin, Barbara Fields and Lynn Dupree for their hard work. He said the advance ticket sales were going well, still need to sell tickets and still need volunteers to work the two doors. He announced that great auction items were coming in, 50/50 raffle volunteers needed to sign up and the Jr. Shaggers would be performing. Jim Adcock reported that he still needed volunteers to help put the dance floor down and take it up. Some volunteers from Broughton High School would be assisting with this also. He announced that the Capital Area Shag Club was donating the floor for the event and expressed the RSC's gratitude. David Hicks recognized Kelly Hughes from Hospice of Wake County. He also reported that 850 am and 102.9 fm had been advertising the event heavily and giving away free tickets. Karen Brown suggested posting the event information on individual Facebook accounts. Capital Ford was recognized as a $500.00 sponsor for the event.

Stacy Marshall then made a few announcements. He recognized Carol and Ed Debnam who were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. He announced that Kay Moore and Gray Pike were engaged. He also announced that Gary Gibson from Capital Area Shag Club was seriously ill and needed our prayers. Stacy then announced the February birthdays and said the new members and birthday members could go to the front of the food line. The 50/50 raffle winner was announced.

Earl Fowler gave the benediction.

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting. Motion was seconded and approved. The meeting adjourned at 7:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann Bartholomew, Secretary
Raleigh Shag Club
