

RALEIGH SHAG CLUB MEETING MINUTES
Sunday, February 7, 2010

The February meeting of the RSC was held on 2-7-10, 5:30 p.m. at TJ's Nightlife.

Present: Stacy Marshall, President
 Warren Grant, Vice President
 Judy Inscore, Secretary
 Margaret Griffin, Treasurer
 Bill Mosen, Sgt. At Arms
 Lee Smith, Membership Chair
 Tommy Smith, Ways and Means Chair
 Jackie Inscore, Social Co-Chair
 Glenda Jackson, Social Co-Chair
 Debbie Brooks, Webmaster
 Pettis Montague, Meal Coordinator

Bill Mosen called the meeting to order. Stacy Marshall welcomed everyone.

Old Business:

Patti Battle and Sue Naylor were given the 2009 books and the audit will be completed by the March meeting.

Minutes for the January meeting were approved; a motion made by Larry Scarboro and it was seconded; unanimous pass.

New Business:

Warren Grant introduced the "222" night, 2-2-10, as the RSC first 2nd Wednesday social, with $2 admission for members and $2 domestic beers.

Jackie Inscore discussed the upcoming Valentine Day party, with DJ Roy "Shag Daddy" Childress, on 2-14-10 from 5-9 p.m. It is free for RSC members and $5 for guests. The food will be catered by Kari Notch. Shae Martin will be taking photographs. Jackie also mentioned the March dance on 3/13 as the "Spring Forward/St. Patrick's Day" theme.

Liz Ross discussed the Cabin Fever Throwdown on 2-28-10. She asked for volunteers and sponsors, as well as raffle and silent auction items. The doors open at 1 and the bands start at 2. All information and forms can be found on the RSC website.

Margaret Griffin gave the treasurer's report. The balance as of 12-31-09 was $3,883.11, disbursements (3602.63), income $3,696.43. Balance as of 1-31-09 is $3,976.91. The report will be filed for the year-end audit.

Lee Smith report 189 members through 2-6-10. Memberships submitted through the end of tonight will receive the $5 discount.

Tommy Smith discussed the on-line advertising. $25 for business card advertising for the entire year is available, as well as $100 prime sponsorship. This will allow business card advertising for the year, as well as spotlighting the business for a specific month and a short presentation at a monthly meeting. He asked for volunteers to work the 50/50 raffle at the Cabin Fever Throwdown. Tonight's 50/50 raffle was won by David Robertson.

Stacy Marshall read the February birthdays and then announced other events. The Burlington Shag Club will host their annual fundraiser dance on Feb. 13 for Meals on Wheels. The Johnston County Shag Club will host the Battle of the DJs on March 20.

Warren Grant reminded everyone of the football board for the Super Bowl party immediately following the meeting.

Pettis Montague thanked everyone for participating in the chili cook-off and asked for volunteers for the meeting meals for the vacant months.

Don Bunn discussed the phone tree, asking for updated contact information so that everyone can receive the messages.

Stacy Marshall adjourned the meeting, with Don Bunn making motion to do so and it was seconded; unanimous pass.

Respectfully Submitted,
Judy Inscore, Secretary
Raleigh Shag Club